

EXPECT HEAVY TRAFFIC DURING CHRISTMAS WEEK

Railroads Entering Richmond Offer Reduced Rates to and From All Points.

BETTER SERVICE TO DANVILLE

Announcement Made by Southern, Chesapeake and Ohio V. M. C. A. Is Given Warm Praise by Magazine—Idle Freight Cars.

Special reduced rates have been placed in effect by all railroads running into Richmond, to remain in force during the Christmas holidays. The rates are on an average of one-half cent a mile cheaper than the regular round trip rates. Special rates out of Richmond may also be secured to any point.

The holiday travel is expected to be heavy this year, and the railroads made arrangements to care for the traffic. Every train leaving Richmond carries one and two extra cars, and more will be added as needed.

The Southern Railway, among the other carriers of the South, has arranged to run its four daily trains between Washington and Atlanta in two sections up to and including December 21. The double trains have been in operation for several days. The Southern trains leaving Richmond are provided with extra cars, as are those of the Chesapeake and Ohio, the Atlantic Coast Line, Norfolk and Western, and Richmond, Fredericksburg and Potomac.

The local office of the Southern Railway announced yesterday the establishment of a Pullman buffet parlor car line between Richmond and Danville. The parlor car will be operated on day trains Nos. 12 and 14, scheduled to leave Richmond at 10:20 o'clock in the morning and arriving at Danville at 4:15 o'clock, and to leave Danville at 2:10 o'clock and arriving at Richmond at 8:25 o'clock.

This service will be in effect commencing tomorrow, in time for the Christmas travel, and will remain a permanent feature of the road's service between this city and the South. The new service meets a long demand made by the traveling public, which will be benefited not only between Richmond and Danville and intermediate points, but will also afford Pullman and meal service for passengers going to Atlanta, Birmingham and New Orleans, with connecting trains at Danville.

The November-December issue of the Railroad Association Magazine, published by the railroad division of the Young Men's Christian Association, is devoted to the work on the Chesapeake and Ohio Railway. The local branch of the association is giving much praise for its membership campaign conducted last September, which resulted in an increase of 1,329 in the enrollment of the Richmond branch.

The Chesapeake and Ohio was one of the first railroads in the country to inaugurate the association, more than twenty-five years ago. On this road alone, according to figures compiled by the magazine, 626 men, 181 women and 1,750 children are employed, and 420 men are provided with beds during their lay-over every twenty-four hours. The membership in the association on the Chesapeake and Ohio is 5,229.

The Virginia Railway is reported to be contemplating the purchase of a number of locomotives in order to handle the increased traffic of the road. The Southern Railway has just placed an order for 14,000 tons of steel rails.

The monthly bulletin of the American Railway Association shows that on December 1 there was a net surplus of idle freight cars on the lines of the United States and Canada of 25,124, compared with 26,229 on November 1, an increase of 1,104 during the month. The total surplus was 60,792, against 52,877 on November 1, while the shortage was 22,554, as compared with 26,425.

On December 1 the net surplus of

A "Fostergraph" of Yourself

More Truly Expresses the Real Christmas Spirit Than Anything You Could Give.

It carries your message of love, not only into the home, but into the heart of its recipient.

It testifies to your fond and thoughtful remembrance on Christmas Morn—and for days and years thereafter.

It is a treasured, time-defying reproduction of your best self—filled with the indescribable charm of your own personality.

A photograph, if you will—but a highly idealized photograph—a masterpiece of art and faithful portraiture, with eyes that beam with love and lips that seem to breathe a message of affectionate good will.

A "Fostergraph" is the BEST photograph that art and skill combined can produce. That's why a "Fostergraph" makes the BEST gift for "home folks" or distant friends.

Member of Richmond Fire Department Among Those Cured by the Wonderful Treatment of the United Doctors.

GEORGE M. ANDREWS, Engine House No. 5, city, says: "I cannot say too much about the good results from the treatment by the UNITED DOCTORS for Sciatic Rheumatism. I had suffered for a long time with pains in my hip and leg, and I was hardly able to keep at my work, so great was my suffering. I had tried various treatments previous to seeing the UNITED DOCTORS, but without results. I cannot recommend their work too highly, and advise all sufferers to see them."
